Luxury condo community coming to Five Points area in Raleigh

Jul 12, 2019, 2:30pm EDT

Construction will soon be underway on a high-end condominium community in Five Points area in Raleigh.

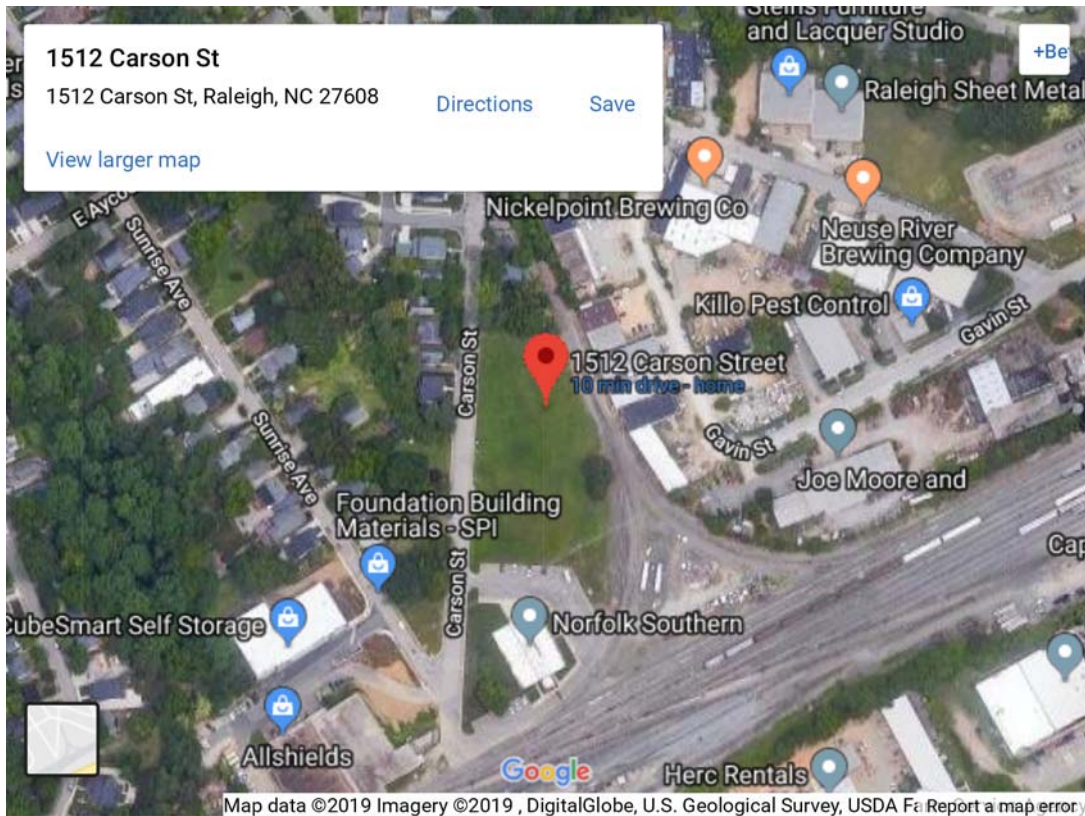

Dewitt Carolinas announced their plans for The Carson on Thursday.

Situated on Carson Street, the new high end community will feature 32 luxury condos across seven buildings, with unit prices starting in the mid $500,000s.

Situated in Five Points, The Carson will feature 32 high-end condos across seven buildings, with unit prices starting in the mid $500,000s.

The community will also feature two private entry courtyards and a fenced dog park.

Unit sizes will range from 1,651 to 1,798 square feet.

Construction will begin in August with the first homes expected to be finished early next years.

Meanwhile, pre-sales have begun.

DeWitt paid over $3 million for the property last year.

“We are delighted to be contributing to the vibrancy of Five Points with The Carson’s classic architecture and modern interior finished,” Todd Saieed, Dewitt Carolinas CEO, said in a release.

Cary-based Scott Gardner Architect, PLLC designed the project. Build Raleigh is the building contractor.

Dewitt Carolinas has several projects underway in the Triangle including in Raleigh and Cary.
